PROMOTIONAL CAMPAIGN ENDS WITH LUCKY WINNER

Times Telecom & Church's Chicken announces the winner of their iPod Contest

Vancouver, BC– January 18, 2006. Times Telecom and fast food giant Church's Chicken would like to congratulate Raymond Alunan of Vancouver, British Columbia for winning the "Win an iPod" segment of their combined promotional campaign.

Times Telecom & Church's Chicken promotion was launched on November 28, 2005 and ended January 1st, 2006. To qualify for the draw, applicants needed to purchase at least $5.00 at any participating Church's Chicken locations in British Columbia and register to Times Telecom's $10.00 long distance gift certificate.

The draw took place at Times Telecom in Richmond, BC. Terry Bahar, VP of Operations, picked out the lucky winner today from the considerable number of participants. Raymond Alunan was informed that he had won an Apple 512MB iPod Shuffle earlier today.

Times Telecom and Church's Chicken were both delighted at the success of the joint marketing campaign. Starting today, interested individuals will get a second chance to participate in the promotion, which will run through April 15, 2006.
