TIMES TELECOM PARTICIPATES IN INDONESIAN CHARITY EVENT

Times Telecom donates to the Abhimata Mitrasamaya Orphanage and the Bethesda Ministry of Love and contributes $10 gift certificates to attendees.

Vancouver, Canada – November 23, 2005. The Spectacular Saturday Night show at the Croatian Cultural Centre unfolded on the eve of November 19, 2005. Hosted by DMT Entertainment and presented by the Consulate of the Republic of Indonesia, the night was geared at raising funds for the Abhimata Mitrasamaya Orphanage and the Bethesda Ministry of Love. The funds would be put towards helping the orphans and homeless people in Indonesia and Canada.

"We are happy to be in support of this event... certainly because we are participating in improving children's lives," said Terry Bahar, Vice-President of Times Telecom.

Times Telecom, a leading global telecommunication service provider and a company built on the growth of communities, was happy and eager to provide a financial contribution to the charity's cause as well as provide all attendees with $10 gift certificates for long-distance so they may keep in touch with family, friends and loved ones worldwide.

"Actions speak louder than words. Times Telecom donated because they support the charity's vision," said Andrew Lee, Sales Manager for Times Telecom.

Times Telecom Inc. is proud and happy to support charitable works such as the Abhimata Mitrasamaya Orphanage and the Bethesda Ministry of Love. As a telecommunication company, we aim to keep the lines of communication open by partaking in such causes as the Tsunami relief, the Community Care Foundation (CCF), and S.U.C.C.E.S.S. (United Chinese Community Enrichment Services Society).
